FEC Garners Awards in “iNOVA Awards 2017”

(13 December, 2017 - Hong Kong) Far East Consortium International Limited (“FEC” or the “Group”; SEHK: 35) is proud to announce that it has garnered two awards in iNOVA Awards 2017. The Group’s Annual Report won Bronze Award in the “Online Annual Report Category” and the newly revamped corporate website received the Bronze Award in the “Corporate Website Category”.

The iNOVA Awards is organised by Mercomm, Inc., an international renowned independent judging institution, aiming to recognise the power and the creative force of corporate websites. The judging panel, comprised of experts across the globe, selects outstanding company websites based on criteria such as content, creativity, ease of navigation, design, functionality and overall success in achieving the goals of the Company and its stakeholders.

On winning the awards, Mr. Chris HOONG, Managing Director of FEC, said: “We are indeed proud to have received accolades again in the ‘Corporate Website Category’ and our online annual report also won Bronze Award in iNOVA Awards 2017. It evidences that our efforts on website-building and investor relations received wide recognition by the industry experts around the world. FEC always attaches great importance to providing shareholders, potential investors, the media and general public a comprehensive approach to learn about the Group’s development in an easier way. We will further strengthen our communication with the public and continuously improve our website’s quality with the effective use of multimedia in order to maintain a close relationship with all our stakeholders and enhance the Group’s transparency.”
