FEC (35.HK) Wins “Suburban Residential Development Award” at “Capital & Capital Weekly The Outstanding Developer Award 2018”

(25 January, 2019 - Hong Kong) Far East Consortium International Limited (“FEC” or the “Group”; SEHK: 35) is pleased to announce that it has won the “Suburban Residential Development Award” at “The Outstanding Developer Award 2018” organized by Capital and Capital Weekly for its exceptional performance in the “Marin Point” project in Sha Tau Kok, Hong Kong.

“The Outstanding Developer Award 2018” organized by Capital and Capital Weekly aims to recognize the efforts made by developers and their partners and encourage them to sustain their excellent performance. The nominated projects were assessed by professional judges from supporting organizations and the assessment committee comprising the editorial teams of Capital and Capital Weekly based on criteria such as quality, safety, appearance, environmental performance and practicality.

On winning the award, Mr. Chris HOONG, Managing Director of FEC said: “We are very honoured to receive this award, which is a proof of our continuous commitment and strong dedication to delivering residential development projects with exceptional quality. Looking forward, the Group will continue to pursue excellence in all aspects and develop more premier, environmental-friendly and practical projects with high standard of safety and attractive appearance.”
